

Course Leader Profiles

Andrew Buttress. Andrew is the Director of Spectrum. Having been in church leadership for over nine years, he now balances the work of Spectrum with an MA in Hermeneutics, family life and Town Pastors. He also coaches a football team and has not given up on the possibility of managing England.

Graham Jack. Graham has an agricultural background and 17 years' experience travelling the world on the OM ships. Having completed an MA in Mission he currently works as the Community and Discipleship Worker at West Road Church (BSE). As a son of Suffolk he naturally supports the Tractor Boys!

Victor Jack. Victor is a well-known teacher, communicator and evangelist in Suffolk and beyond. He founded Sizewell Hall Christian Conference Centre in 1975 and has worked in Israel on an occasional basis for over 22 years. He is an author and has recently taken up the game of golf.

Duncan Banks. Duncan is a leader of the Forge Church based in Debenham. To the amazement of many, he is actually paid to create irresistible Sunday experiences @forgechurch. He is a speaker, part-time writer (The Naked Life, Breakfast with God) and Starbucks connoisseur.

Oliver Westmancott. Oliver is a Director at IE – an award winning digital marketing agency based in Birmingham. When he's not tending his flock of ducks or fixing a piece of obsolete technology he's helping leaders plan and implement their digital communications to fulfil their strategic vision effectively.

Tim Lovejoy. Tim is a leader of Fulmerston Christian Fellowship in Thetford and was the driving force behind the establishment of a family/community work charity which operates there. Tim also works alongside individuals and churches as a mentor, facilitator and consultant. Tim is an author, lecturer and speaker.

Course Leader Profiles

Matt Rushby. Matt, with over 15 years' experience in youth work (including a youth pastorate in Eastbourne), is currently the Youth Worker with Bury Christian Youth (BCY), a Christian schools work charity based in Bury St Edmunds. Matt is married to Sarah (below).

Sarah Rushby. Sarah has been involved with youth work for ten years and in particular with mentoring teenage girls and young women. She is the LoveLife Project Leader at BCY, having written the sex and relationships education workshops which have been used in upper schools for the last four years.

Revd Robert Green. Robert has been a Pastor since 1987 during which time he spent 13 years working in the Queen's Hospital Chaplaincy Team, Romford. Now Pastor at Garland Street Baptist Church, Bury St Edmunds, he combines work and family life with his hobby of collecting and repairing vintage fountain pens.

Revd Ali Walton. Ali is the Director of Pastoral Studies at Ridley Hall, Cambridge and teaches Practical Theology there. She has served as a Curate, Associate Priest and Vicar in a number of different parishes. Married to Steve, they enjoy the cinema, walking and dining out.

Prof. Sam Leinster. Sam is Emeritus Professor of Medical Education at the University of East Anglia. He has an MD for research into breast cancer and is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons and a Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. He is a writer, gardener and Elder at Dereham Baptist Church.

Tony Hodge. Tony has a degree in biology and has worked for 21 years in government research in molecular biology. For a further nine years he worked in science administration. A career change led to Tony becoming the Pastor of Newmarket Community Church in 2009. Among his hobbies is astronomy.

Revd Joel Edwards. Joel is the International Director for Micah Challenge and was General Director of the Evangelical Alliance, UK, for more than 10 years. A passionate speaker and regular contributor in the media, Joel is committed to seeing long-term change for the world's poor and is a champion for their cause.

Mark Barrell. Mark has been the Executive Director of the Lawyers Christian Fellowship since June 2010. A qualified solicitor, he spent 12 years working mainly in the area of family law and was involved locally with a women's refuge. Mark also served with BMS world mission in Kampala from 2001 to 2006

Dr David McIlroy. David is a practising barrister in London. He teaches the Mission of Justice and the Theology of Law course at Spurgeon's College and is a Visiting Senior Lecturer in Law at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London. David's publications include A Biblical View of Law and Lianna Clarke. Lianna serves as Public Engagement Co-ordinator for International Justice Mission, UK, and is passionate about the ground-breaking work of IJM in countries around the world, ensuring that local justice systems adequately serve the poor and vulnerable. Lianna mobilises volunteers and churches around the UK to seek justice for the oppressed.